

PICKFORD HALL, LECTURE HALL, VIRGINIA UNION UNIVERSITY, RICHMOND, VA.

A building of rare architectural beauty. Named in honor of Mr. C. J. Pickford, Lynn, Mass., a generous donor. Contains an assembly room seating 240 at desks, and provides offices, seventeen recitation rooms, physical and chemical laboratories. The recitation rooms are large, cheerful, and well lighted.

COBURN HALL, CHAPEL, VIRGINIA UNION UNIVERSITY, RICHMOND, VA.

Named in honor of Governor Coburn of Maine, who gave $50,000 to Wayland. Contains on the first floor a fine library, office, and reading room. The second story is the Chapel, a beautiful semi-circular room seating 600, with sloping floor and a large gallery.